From the Peters Creek Section

The protracted services at Mt. Tabor conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Foster, closed on the fourth Sunday with ten members added to the church, eight by experience and two by letter. The ordinance of Baptism was administered on the first Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m., witnessed by a large congregation.

The Dacusville township singing convention met at this place at 3 p. m. and rendered some excellent music. The convention will meet with the Cross Roads church the first Sunday in November.

Perry Crenshaw is enrolled at the Six Mile school this session. Here's hoping that Perry will succeed in his work as he is well liked by every one in the home community.

Robert McJunkin has erected a nice barn. And that isn't all; Rob has something to go in the barn, too.

The Misses Lena Turner, Ethel Turner and Mary Looper of Dacusville route 1 were visiting Miss Christine Edens

In Honor of Miss Lewis

Mrs. J. T. Richey entertained last Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Ellen Lewis, whose marriage to Mr. J. E. Boggs takes place on the 18th. The guests were received by Miss Inez Morris and presented to Mrs. Richey and Miss Lewis, the honor guest. Mrs. Richey was attired in an attractive white gown. Miss Lewis wore a plum dress trimmed with gold lace and wore a black picture hat.

The guests then passed into the parlor, which was attractively decorated with white and green with a large wedding bell in the center. Several contests were indulged in. The first contest was an acrostic on hearts, which caused much merriment. The second contest was a domestic romance, which was answered by the various cereals and breakfast foods.

Then each guest was given a piece of muslin with needle and thread and asked to embroider the monogram "L. B." Mrs. R. B. Anthony won the prize, a handsome picture, which was presented to the guest of honor.

Miss Lewis was then asked to ring a bell, and the shower she received was overwhelming, consisting of the most useful and beautiful articles that a housewife could wish for.

During the afternoon Misses Mary Morris and Belle Yongue served ice cream and cake and Misses Margaret Richey and Nannie Morris served coffee and cheese straws.

As the guests were leaving a shower of confetti fell. This was a most delightful affair.

From Ambler Section

The ladies' missionary meeting was well attended at Griffin yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. McJunkin and children spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Keith.

Beco Watson and family and Tommie Trotter and family were visiting at Mr. A. C. Smith's Sunday.

Mrs. Will Hayes and daughter, Verna Mae, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Craig spent several days last week with relatives and friends in Walhalla.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Brown were visitors in this section last week.

Mr. J. B. Jones made a business trip to Honea Path last week and visited his friend, Rev. Mr. Foster. X. Y. Z.

last week.

Miss Leila Jones is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jas. Hughes of Dacusville route 1 this week.

W. N. Jones of Easley was in this section last week talking automobiles. Will's up on his job too.

Magistrate W. H. Williams has another job too, besides being a peace officer, as he is rapidly turning off lumber from his saw mill now.

Well, boys, let's go to the polls on the 7th of November and carry out our promise that we made at the primary; viz: support the nominee of the Democratic party. PROGRESSIVE.

RURAL CREDITS

EDITORIAL IN KEOWEE COURIER.

THE Courier is glad to note that the citizens of the Oakway section of Oconee have taken hold of the National Rural Credits association work in earnest and with success. These citizens are going to get in line for the securing of funds at low rates of interest and for long terms, and they want the citizens of other sections of the county to be in line with them and to have the same advantages that they will have. For this purpose a meeting has been called for next Saturday at Oakway at 2 o'clock p. m. The call will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Recently the Oconee branch, National Rural Credits association, was organized at Oakway, with $60,000 capital pledged, and in a very short while after the meeting $30,000 additional was subscribed, with additional capital to come forward if needed. This shows interest and it shows confidence. But confidence is not an essential feature in this financial undertaking, for the government of the United States is back of the great new plan, known as the national rural credits law, and there is no man foolish enough to be lacking in confidence in our government or in the success of any financial efforts that our government may make. All that is needed is an understanding of the great new system of financing agricultural landowners at low interest rates and for long loan periods, with the lands of the borrower or purchaser pledged as security for the loan.

The Oconee branch has elected officers as follows: President, Henry L. Verner; vice-president, Clifton H. Miller. The directors of the organization are: C. H. Miller, Elias Earle, T. D. Marett, S. L. Brown, H. L. Verner, with the following appraisal committee: H. L. Verner, C. H. Miller, S. L. Brown.

This organization was perfected on August 19, and Oconee has gone on record as forming one of the first branches of the National Rural Credits association—new feature for our country, but by no means a new plan. It has been worked in other countries for many years, and wherever it has been in use it has made farmers and agricultural workers independent landowners. It gives opportunity to every man to own his own farm by making the purchase terms so liberal and the interest rate so low that any man with a will can make good.

We believe that this National Rural Credits law is going to be the making of the south. It presents the opportunity that has long been needed to enable the small farm renter to become a farm and home owner. We hope that the people of Oconee are going to take to this plan and reap all the advantages that it is designed to give.

The government can help you and it is endeavoring to do so through the medium of the new rural credits system. The government cannot, and would not if it could, force you to take advantage of it. That is up to the individual, and we sincerely hope to see this great undertaking pushed for all it is worth and its advantages secured for our home farmers.

MARRIAGES

Married, October 5, 1916, at the residence of T. J. Hayes, a prosperous farmer near Pickens, Mr. Noah Bagwell to Miss Louise Hayes. Mr. Bagwell is a young business man of Greenville and numbers his friends by the score, while his bride is one of Pickens county's finest young ladies. After the ceremony they left for Asheville and other points in Western North Carolina. M. F. Hester performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. We wish this young couple a long, happy and prosperous voyage through life. After the marriage a bountiful dinner was served. X.

Married, October 1, 1916, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mauldin, near Six Mile, Mr. John T. Findley to Miss Lucia Mauldin. After the marriage the bridal party went to Mountain View for preaching and then returned to the brides home, where a bountiful dinner was served. Rev. B. C. Atkinson performed the ceremony, and stated that this was his 105th couple and this was the finest day he had ever had. We wish for them a long and happy life. X.

DEATHS

Rev. D. I. Spearman, retired Baptist minister, died at the home of his son, Jake Spearman, in the White Plains section of Anderson county, on the 30th ult., aged about 65 years. He had been ill for some time with pellegria and this was the cause of his death. He is survived by four sons and two daughters. The funeral services were held at White Plains church and he was buried with Masonic honors. Mr. Spearman was well and favorably known in this county, and it is with deep regret that we chronicle his death.

Miss Texie Bowen died at the home of her nephew, Luther Berry, at Richland, in Oconee county, September 30. For the past two years she had spent most of her time in Oconee county, but formerly lived on the Georges Creek section of this county. She was a daughter of the late John T. Bowen and is survived by three brothers and one sister and also a number of other relatives in this county. She was a sister of the late Col. R. E. Bowen. She was well known in this county and was a quiet, lovable Christian woman. Miss Bowen was in her 49th year. Her body was brought to her home church, Georges Creek, in this county, and interred there Sunday.

Columbia, S. C., October 7, 1916.

DEAR SAMMY: I knew when I told you about the vaudeville that you would wake up. I am glad you are coming. Certainly they are pretty. Yes, we will have fireworks at night, football games and lots of other things too numerous to mention. The midway this year will be worth the trip. I would like to see Jim on the midway.

I see by the papers that they have appointed a public safety committee. There will be such a big crowd here that the Jubilee people want to take every precaution to keep the visitors from getting hurt. This is a good idea. I do not know who will be Queen. The papers will announce it about October 15. She certainly will have a fine time here.

I am glad you have persuaded Aunt Lou to come. Tell her I will take her to see the Leach-Wallin Trio.

There is some talk of a "Fiddlers' Convention" on Capitol steps Friday afternoon. Tell Jim that if he is coming to write a postal card to Fiddlers' Convention, Harvest Jubilee, Columbia, S. C., and to tell all the rest of the fellows who want to get into this to write down at once and find out the particulars.

The last time I attended the Fair down here there was not very much stirring until about Thursday. They have got the whole week chock full of events this year. If they keep on going at the rate they are now they will be holding this Fair Week celebration two weeks instead of one. Everybody in Columbia has fixed up for the show.

Buffalo Bill will be at the Fair this year and we will have to see this show.

Your cousin,

BILL.

W. M. S. Conference Met Here

About 50 delegates attended the sessions of the Greenville District Conference of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church, held with the Grace M. E. church in Pickens last Thursday night and Friday.

Thursday night Rev. L. E. Wiggins conducted the devotional exercises. Dr. M. L. Carlisle offered prayer. The address of welcome was delivered by Mrs. Gary Hiott and the response by Mrs. J. Thomas Arnold of Spartanburg. Mrs. Thomas I. Charles of Greenville presided. Mrs. J. W. Kilgo made a talk on mission schools.

Friday morning the devotional services were conducted by Mrs. J. W. Kilgo and the organization was perfected. At noon a light two-course luncheon was served by the ladies of the church. The devotional services in the afternoon were conducted by Rev. J. L. Singleton, and several helpful five-minute talks were made by different delegates.

Friday night the devotional services were conducted by the pastor and an address was delivered by Miss Hudson. The report of the different committees were heard, after which the conference adjourned.

The sessions were all well attended and enjoyed.

Miss Young Entertains

On last Saturday evening from 8.30 to 11.30 at her home on Liberty route 3, Miss Magnolia Young was the charming hostess at a delightful party complimentary to her cousins, the Misses Swainhne of Columbia, the honor guests. In the early part of the evening progressive conversation with various games and amusements were carried on. Afterward music was an interesting part of the program. Mr. Parsons played several violin selections with accompaniment. The booby prizes which were awarded in the contests afforded much amusement for the guests. About 30 guests enjoyed this delightful occasion. X

Singing Convention

The Pickens County Singing convention will hold its next meeting with the Baptist church at Easley mill, in Easley, Saturday and Sunday, October 28-29. Singing will begin at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon and again at 7.30 Saturday evening. Singing Sunday morning and afternoon. There will be no spread of dinner on the ground, but those wishing to bring their lunch may do so. All singers and lovers of music are cordially invited. E. P. McCRAVEY, Pres. J. L. BAGWELL, Secy.

Good Day at Griffin

The quarterly meeting of the W. M. U. met at Griffin on Sunday, October 8. In the morning we had some splendid talks on missions and mission work, by Mrs. C. E. Robinson, Mrs. J. M. Stewart, Mrs. Nealy and Miss Virginia Ligon. In the afternoon our pastor, Rev. Fulton Childress, and Mrs. S. G. Dorr made some good talks on missions. We hope much good will come from this meeting and that our people will take more interest in our missionary societies.

Sunday night the Griffin people reassembled at the church and had a splendid prayer meeting.

More than half a hundred applicants stood the teacher's examination which was held at the courthouse Friday.
